HOW'D IT TURN OUT?

My grandchildren raved on this recipe!

Yum! This was spectacular! I didn't have a jello mold, so I just used a bundt pan and that worked really nicely too. It made for a lovely presentation with the berries in the middle (I used the raspberry jello and blueberries and strawberries inside the jello and then I put blackberries in the center) and it tasted even better than it looked. Thanks for the great

My favorite jello salad! I've made it several times. It's refreshing and delicious! I like to serve it as a part of the main course (often for holidays), but it also, of course, works great as

This jello has a lot of zing! I really liked the club soda in this. I will make this often using different berries, the kids loved it. I never would have thought of used the soda in place of the water....great idea. thank you for sharing this with us.
